

MR. AND MRS. ALAN PEDERSON

Julie Falcon and Alan Pederson wed

TIMESNEWS — Prairie Chapel United Methodist Church near Marion provided the setting May 24 for the wedding of Miss Julie Ann Falcon and Alan Rex Pederson. The Rev. Clive G. Cook performed the 7:30 p.m. ceremony. Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Gene A. Falcon of Springville and Mr. and Mrs. Gerald D. Pederson of Vinton.

The bride's gown of peau de soie organza over satin was designed with a Victorian neckline, a Juliet yoke of petite pleats and Swiss lace and a cathedral train. Her cathedral-length veil edged with matching lace was held by a Camelot cap and she carried an arrangement of pink elf roses and baby's breath.

Attending the bride were her sister, Kathleen Falcon of Springville, as maid of honor and Mrs. Cheryl Falcon of Chicago and Shelley Hawkins of Vinton. Jennifer Hartz of Cedar Rapids was flower girl. The attendants' gowns of organza with taffeta underlay were yellow, pink blue and lavender, respectively, and were styled with ruffles at the bodices and hemlines. Each carried a basket of spring flowers.

Steve Pederson of Belle Plaine served his brother as best man and Steve Berry and Steve Schirm of Vinton were groomsmen. The guests were seated by Larry Falcon of Chicago and Dennis Pederson of Vinton, brothers of the bridal couple.

Nuptial music was provided by Mrs. Debby Clark of Chicago, Ill., organist, and Mrs. Mardell Kohl of Marion, who sang "The Wedding Prayer", "The Lord's Prayer" and "The Wedding Song."

A reception for 200 guests was held following the ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Pederson chose St. Louis, Mo. for their wedding trip.

The bride has been a student at Iowa State University where she was a member of Alpha Delta Pi. The groom attended the same university and is employed at the Coach House in Vinton. They will make their home in Vinton.
