

Juanita Pederson

BARTLESVILLE, Okla.—Juanita Pederson, 89, died Sunday, Sept. 21, 1997, at the Heritage Village in Bartlesville.

She was born February 25, 1908, at Great Bend, Kan., and married Grant A. Pederson, February 27, 1943. They moved to Vinton in 1956 where she was employed as a waitress in several restaurants until she retired. She was a member of the First Baptist Church.

Survivors include her son, James Spradlin and his wife, Jo Anne, Bartlesville, Okla., one daughter, Barbara Meek, Vinita, Okla.; a stepson, Gerald Pederson and his wife, Wineva, Vinton; one stepdaughter, Jauineta Pederson, Brooksville, Fla. and several grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Grant and one stepson, Loyd Pederson, Brooksville, Fla.

Memorial services are pending at the Stump Funeral Home in Bartlesville.

Read Psalm 104:24-34

My thoughts are not your thoughts, nor are your ways my ways, says the Lord
— Isaiah 55:8